Life's Little Luxuries

Hailed by London's toughest critics, including Giles Coren of The Times who rated his cuisine nearly perfect with a 9/10, acclaimed chef Joël Antunes has returned to London with his signature restaurant, Brasserie Joël. 1WB Lounge & Patisserie serves a delectable selection of freshly made pastries, a relaxing afternoon tea and tapas-style items inspired by Chef Joël's world travels. The intimate Ichi Sushi & Sashimi Bar is a taste of Tokyo with an iconic London view, while the stylish Primo Bar serves an array of original cocktails and live music every night. For a truly authentic Italian coffee experience – where better than espressamente illy coffee bar. in-suite dining also is available 24 hours a day.

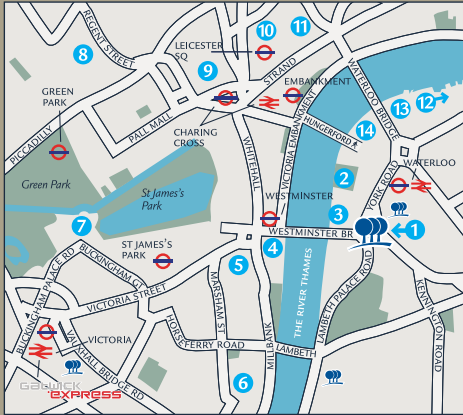

Mandara Spa has brought a taste of Bali to Britain with a menu of soothing therapies that incorporate ingredients native to the Indonesian Islands. With its warm, contemporary Balinese décor, and the very best treatments and products from Mandara Spa, Elemis Face and Body Therapies and Bliss Nails and Waxing, the spacious spa offers an exotic escape in the heart of the city. The hotel also offers a well-appointed Fitness Centre, steam room, sauna and 15-metre swimming pool.

Ideally located on the South Bank, the hotel is only minutes from Oxford Street, Mayfair and Covent Garden.
